It's up to us to call our-selves — to task to sing what's good and true car-ry-ing the sto-ries — of the ones who came be-fore.

To bring a-bout re-demp-tion, it's what we were freed to do. —
What sto-ries will be told of us — when we are here no more?

For what's the point of be-ing here, if we're not moved to change our ways?
We com-mit our-selves to ac-tion — It brings mean-ing to — our days.
